TO TAKE NINE IN CHAINS FROM JAIL

Prisoners Under Sentence Leave For State Prisons Wednesday Night.

With chains around their necks, and linked together, nine prisoners who have been confined in the El Paso county jail under penitentiary sentences, will leave the city Wednesday night in the custody of J. J. Heathcock, a penitentiary transfer agent, who will distribute the men at the various state farms and penitentiaries.

Included are: W. J. Harkness, who will serve a two year term on a forgery charge; Cruz Degado, burglary, two years; Juan Vargas, burglary, two years; Roque Silva, burglary, five years; Santiago Overman, criminal assault, five years; Ysidro Padilla, theft over $50, five years; Carlos Brisenio, burglary, two years; C. L. Wright, passing a forged instrument, two years; and Frank Lawson, negro, life term in the penitentiary and ten years.

Lawson, who was convicted of the murder of his wife, is the only man who will be taken to the penitentiary at Huntsville. The Mexicans will be taken to the Ramos state farm and the others to the Harlan state farm.

Mr. Heathcock, who will leave with his men on the Sunset limited over the G. H. at 7 o'clock, will receive another prisoner at Uvalde and pick up an additional 17 at San Antonio. Upon leaving San Antonio he will be in charge of 27 men.

Under the new system of transportation, two prisoners are chained together by chains, or clasp, which are padlocked around their necks. In the center of the chains holding the men is a ring through which a long chain is run, thus tying together any number of men. Mr. Heathcock states he has often been in charge of as many as 50 men, all of whom are linked together by the necks.

JUDGE FALL VISITS RANCH.
Judge A. R. Fall, who was a delegate from Otero county to the New Mexico constitutional convention, has left Santa Fe and is making the trip to his ranch at Three Rivers in his big auto. He will stop en route to visit a number of friends.

IS APPOINTED CARRIER.
Will E. Moelich has been appointed a regular carrier for route 19, the Sunset Heights district, in place of W. R. Spehger, who has been removed on account of illness. Mr. Spehger is at present in Bluffton, Ind., whence he writes that he has gained 15 pounds in weight.

as well as new ones, did everything possible to help us in our re-organization. Then too, other local establishments did everything possible to help us bridge between our disaster and the resumption of regular business.

Faithful employees have, also, been no small factor in enabling us to offer the service which we do today.

We are indeed most thankful, and, wishing local and out-of-town customers many happy returns of the season, we remain

A Message From Santa Claus

Christmas follows so quickly on the heels of Thanksgiving that we take this occasion to tell you that we have heard from Santa Claus. This will be interesting news to everybody, as in past years Santa Claus has been identified with Calisher's. Santa Claus informs us that this year he will have his headquarters in the Calisher Annex. Already, the Annex seems a veritable fairland of toys, dolls, games, and, in fact, everything to delight the little folks. In this same connection, we remind you that but one short month now remains until Christmas. Early shopping is strongly recommended—you have more time to shop, selections are better, and it relieves in a great measure the strain imposed on salespeople
